PETITIONING THE COURT

☐ To issue a warrant

☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	The offender has violated the supervision condition which states ' You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime. '
---	--

On June 17, 2008, the offender was arrested by the Passaic County Prosecutor's Office and charged with Attempt to Commit Robbery, Attempt to Commit Burglary and Resisting Arrest by Flight.

The Passaic County Prosecutor's Office were conducting surveillance of 93 Maryland Avenue, Paterson, New Jersey for unrelated criminal activity. While conducting surveillance, they observed the offender park in front of the residence, exit the vehicle and knock on the front door. With no answer, the offender walked around the property, attempting to look through the windows. He then walked on the right side of the house to the backyard, out of view of the surveillance team. After a few minutes, he re-appeared on the left side of the house, jumped the fence, entered his vehicle and departed the area. After he departed, the owner of the residence opened the shades to the front door and was looking up and down the street.

Moments later, the offender returned with another male, identified as Raul Delacruz. They were walking and together they approached 93 Maryland Avenue. They walked to the right side of the residence and were attempting to look inside the windows. A few seconds later, the owner of the residence was observed running out the front door carrying a knife and started to chase the offender and Delacruz.

The surveillance team ended its surveillance and began pursuit of the individuals. Delacruz was apprehended and the offender proceeded to run through several backyards and was arrested on Alabama Avenue as he tried to enter his girlfriend's vehicle.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
